FirePaw // FireHeart // FireStar X SpottedLeaf!

Ok, so I know there is like a debate on this, and I do agree that they would make a good couple....

If SpottedLeaf was younger!

Think about it! When FirePaw first joins the clans, he is around 6 moons!

SpottedLeaf is an adult cat! I'm not entirely sure how old she was but still!

Personally I don't ship it!

But tell me what you think!

AshFur and SquirrelFlight

So I do agree with this ship. I think their relationship would have been really good, but I do believe that SquirrelFlight and BrambleClaw/Star are a better couple.

I still ship it though, so tell me what you think!

BlueStar X OakHeart

I do ship it! Even though they broke the warrior code by meeting each other, becoming mates and having kits, they were still a cute couple and were able to have kits that most of the fandom love!

Tell me your opinions in the comments!

FeatherTail X CrowFeather

Now I don't completely ship these two, but they could have been a cute couple, though in my opinion it would really fit as FeatherTail was moons older than CrowFeather, she was a warrior and he was still an apprentice.

But that's my opinion, tell me yours in the comments!

StormFur X Brook

I do ship these two! I mean it's canon! They are adorable together and have very cute kits!

I don't know what else to say XD! Tell me your opinions in the comments!

BlueStar X CrookedStar

I've gotta say I don't completely support this ship. I guess they would be cute but BlueStar X OakHeart takes the cake!

I LOVE THIS SHIP!

Thy bonded really well and Fallen Leaves was there to comfort HollyLeaf when she was away from the clans. I wish it could be canon!

Well tell me your opinions in the comments!

Don't forget to suggest what ship I should talk about next!

Eclipse out!
